Invitations have been sent for the sixth annual Parents Day, Friday, April 15.

Parents will be greeted by representatives of campus organizations as early as 7:45 in the lobby of the main entrance to the Administration building.

Registration, under the direction of Mr. James Johnson, will begin the day's activities.

All classrooms will be open for attendance, and parents are invited to accompany their children to classes and meet their instructors, according to Dr. Frank Grube, chairman of the Parents Day committee.

Mr. Donald Valk, exhibit chairman, has arranged special departmental exhibits for display. They are Audio Visual Aids, IMB Room of the Library, under the direction of Dr. Robert DuBey; Pi Omega Pi, Room 126; Home Economics, home economics department; Kappa Omicron Phi, on the third floor near the home economics department; mathematics department, Room 312; Alpha Sigma Alpha, sorority chapter room at Residence Hall; Independent Club, near the College auditorium; music, Room 414; physics, Room 322; and Industrial Arts, in the Industrial Arts building.

From 9:00-10:00 an open make-up demonstration will be given in Room 103 by the Drama Club of the campus. Actual stage make-up will be given to the members participating in the one act play for the assembly.

At 10:00 in the College auditorium, the following assembly under the direction of Mrs. John Mauzey, of the foreign language department, will be presented:

Welcome to the Parents, Frank Bayless.

Speech of Greeting, President J. W. Jones.

Two numbers by the Dance Club, directed by Miss Doris Hysler.

Selections from Porkey and Bess, College Band, directed by Mr. Earle Moss.

Music Department To Give "Elijah"

This year for the spring musical production, the Tower Choir will present the oratorio, "Elijah." Two performances are scheduled for the production. The first performance will be given for the community on Wednesday evening, April 27, and the second one for the College assembly on Friday morning, April 29.

The choir will be directed by Mr. Gilbert Whitney. The accompanists will be Mr. Gerhard Krapf of the music faculty at the organ and George Green, freshman music major, at the piano.

The "Elijah" will be presented in two parts with the solo role being shared among several students. The long and difficult role of Elijah is shared by John Guemple, Charles Hagee, and Jack Hill. The tenor soloist will be Donald Herren.

Other soloists in the cast will include Maxine DeShon Goff, soprano; Barbara Stuber, soprano; Ruth Tebow, contralto; Carolyn Criswell, soprano; and Rita Yehle, contralto.

The Tower Choir will serve as the people, priests of Baal, angels, and narrators.

The oratorio, "Elijah," by Mendelssohn is one of the most dramatic sacred stories set to music. The entire production lasts more than two hours.

Mr. Wright Attends Meeting

Mr. R. T. Wright, of the agriculture department, recently attended the first annual convention of the National Association of College Teachers of Agriculture at Warrensburg.

Students Have Right To Use Golf Course

Students who desire to play golf may use the golf course at the Maryville Country Club, according to Dr. J. W. Jones, president of the College. However there are a few regulations which must be followed in order to enjoy this privilege.

Students may use the golf course only during the semester or term in which they are registered as students at the Northwest Missouri State College.

A student who wishes to play golf should FIRST report to Dr. H. D. Peterson in the gymnasium and register for use of the golf course. This does not mean that a student must sign up for golf as a Physical Education course, although he may do so if he wishes in the semester in which golf is given for credit.

When the student registers with Dr. Peterson an identification card will be issued which must be presented to the person in charge of the golf course at the Maryville Country Club.

Students will not be allowed to use the golf course on Sundays and holidays.

Buddy Brings His Trombone

Pictured above is Buddy Morrow who will bring his orchestra to the campus on April 15 for an all school dance. Morrow, who was voted the number one most promising band in the country in 1951, is the first big name band to appear on the campus for an all school spring dance.

Morrow's Orchestra to Play For All School Spring Dance

The social committee is sponsoring an all school spring dance at the main gymnasium on Friday, April 15. Buddy Morrow and his orchestra will furnish the music for this dance. This is the first time that a big name band has been on campus for a spring dance. The social committee hopes to make this an annual event. The junior class will pay the admission for members of the senior class for this dance, and it will take the place of the Junior-Senior Prom.

Born in New Haven, Conn., on Feb. 8, 1919, Buddy received his first trombone at the age of twelve as a birthday present from his parents. At the age of 13, Buddy debuted professionally, playing at junior and senior high school dances in his home town of New Haven. At 15 he was featured with the Yale Collegians at the fabulous salary of $35 a week.

Deciding to continue his musical studies he accepted a scholarship to Juilliard School of Music in New York City. During his studies he was heard by Paul Whiteman who offered him a job with the band. During his eight months' stay with "Pops," Buddy was featured on the Chesterfield Show, as well as one-nighters, theatres and recording dates while with the band.

After leaving Whiteman, Buddy played with other name bands such as the late Eddie Duchin, Bunny Berrigan, Artie Shaw, Vincent Lopez, and Jimmy Dorsey.

Records that have named Morrow as an outstanding music personality are "I Can't Get Started," "Dragnet," "Stairway To The Stars," "One Mint Julep," and many others.

More than 2,000 disk jockeys voted Buddy Morrow the No. 1 most promising band in the country in the 1951 annual Billboard Magazine Disk Jockey Poll.

Although a trombone similar to the one Buddy Morrow owns could be bought on the market for $500 or $600, the one he uses has been insured for $10,000 because of the special materials used in the horn, which was custom made, and the special design of it which couldn't be duplicated by a commercial manufacturer.

Buddy Morrow has set up a code of clean, listenable, danceable rhythms which is proving very popular with customers and critics alike. As Buddy puts it, "Do not try to educate the public from the bandstand; instead, play the type of music that they want to hear."

This dance will be semi-formal and the admission price will be $3.00 per couple.

Debate Team Wins In State Contest

Competing with representatives from 15 colleges and universities, five students won top ratings at the State of Missouri Speech Tournament. Under the direction of Mrs. Ruby Wispe, of the speech and drama department, the group traveled to Warrensburg the second week-end in March.

Bob Wilson won top rating of superior, and Charles Hagee won an excellent rating in poetry reading. Elbert Blair took second place in the championship original oratory finals; Floyd Worley and Alan Carr received in debate, good and excellent, respectively.

This completes the tournament season for the forensics squad which has won honors in discussion, oratory, and poetry reading in contests held at Winfield, Emporia, and Pittsburg, Kansas.

In the near future the group plans to present programs before Maryville and neighboring community organizations, and in May will sponsor a parliamentary institute on the Campus.

Penalty

A penalty of one negative semester hour will be assessed for each day, or fraction thereof, or unexcused absence from class on the day preceding or following a holiday. Faculty members will report absences to the Registrar who will enter the negative credit on the student's permanent record card.

"The Doctor in Spite of Himself," English translation of Moliere's play, by the Drama Club, directed by Mr. R. E. Fulsom, assisted by E. L. Blair, student.

In the cast are Sganarelle, a woodcutter, Earl Gobhardt; Martine, Sganarelle's wife, Carolyn Denny; Robert, Sganarelle's neighbor, Walter Maris; Valere, Geronte's servant, Roger Wayman.

Lucas, Jacqueline's husband, Benny Simpson; Jacqueline, Lucas' wife, Marge Cannon; Lucinde, Seronte's daughter, Nancy Dancer; Geronte's, a country gentleman, Larry Ramsey; Leandre, in love with Lucinde, Kirby Norman; organ prelude, George Green.

Bearcat spikemen will encounter Peru State Teachers College, Peru, Nebraska, in Memorial Stadium at 3:00 for an outdoor track meet. Parents will be guests at the meet.

Parents and teachers will have a better opportunity to get acquainted during the tea to be held in the Union lounge from 3:00-5:00. Miss Doris Hysler, of the physical education department, will be in charge of the arrangements for the tea.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

"Ok-ok, you guys! Let's quit clownin' aroun' with that shot putt!"

Let Us Give Thought

Lost to many of us, in the flurry of commercial advertising and the hustle and bustle of the fashionable Easter parade, is the true significance of Easter.

Do we not more or less use Easter as an excuse to purchase and show off a new spring outfit?

Church services may take the form of a Paris fashion show.

Need churches set attendance goals for Easter Sunday? All want to get in the act? For many, the motive may be to see and be seen.

Easter should not be an exhibition, nor should the church services be used as an excuse to parade.

Christ lives, having conquered the horror of the grave. Easter is in commemoration of this victory. Every hope and dream of the future peace and tranquility of the world must be based on the hope which derives its vitality from this victory.

As we attend the church service this Easter, let's give some special thought and study to the true significance of Easter and how it can be applied to make our daily lives more fully complete.

They're Talking About . . .

Buddy Morrow . . . Buddy and his orchestra will be here at Ol' State, April 15, for the first Annual Spring Hop . . . It's something to look forward to, and since it is the first Annual Spring Hop, let's make it a success . . . We're hoping a big name band and the Spring Hop will become a permanent fixture.

"Barefoot in Athens" . . . The cast of the play and all concerned with producing it should feel mighty proud of a job well done . . . Only complaint heard was how hard those auditorium seats got before it was over.

Contests . . . The halls were crowded last week with high school students competing in commerce, speech and music contests . . . A lot of potential college students . . . classes on Friday were few and far between; some made a big week-end out of it.

Been down in the Den lately? If you have, maybe this tune is running through your mind, "I'm in the Jailhouse Now."

THE COLLEGE OATH

"We will never bring disgrace to this, our College, by any act of cowardice or dishonesty. We will fight for the ideals and sacred things of the College. We will revere and obey the College laws and do our best to invite a like respect and reverence in others. We will transmit this College to those who come after us, greater, better, and more beautiful than it was transmitted to us."

THE STROLLER

We should all give a big hand to Mr. Ralph Fulsom and the cast of "Barefoot in Athens" for their excellent performance. The boys (perhaps some of their girls, too) are glad that they are free to scrub the rust from their razors and remove those itchy whiskers.

Who belongs to that fire-wagon red Model T? Henry Ford's favorite car, dressed as it is in Easter style, gets more attention when it chuckles down the street than would a spanking new Cadillac convertible.

If you aren't feeling up to par after you have seen your mid-term grades, just remember that your average intelligence coupled with a reasonable amount of work will still bring you through. The teachers will help those who help themselves.

Why do so many autos converge on the Dormitory every night about five minutes before the door is locked? 'Twould certainly disrupt the schedule if some night everyone's timepiece would suddenly go on the blink.

Attention, ye frequenters of the student lounge! When you plop that weary carcass into an easy chair, please don't pick the one that has degenerated into a booby trap. It innocently receives you, but when you arise it uncoils one of its springs and the victim feels the cloth tear in a rather embarrassing spot.

Procurement Team Will Be on Campus

An Officers Procurement Team, consisting of a Marine captain, a Marine sergeant, a Navy chief, and a Navy doctor will be on the Northwest Missouri State campus from 9:00 to 4:00 on April 19, 1955, to discuss Marine Officer training programs with students and to enroll those interested.

For undergraduates, the Marines offer a Platoon Leader Class, and seniors and graduates are offered the Officer Candidate Course. For the women, the women Officer Training Class.

After completion of either program and upon graduation, those enrolled in these programs may receive commissions as second lieutenants in the Marine Corps Reserve.

All applicants for either program must be between the ages of 17 and 27 and must be able to meet the physical requirements set for entrance into the United States Naval Academy.

Capacity Audience Sees Play Produced

"Barefoot in Athens," given by the drama and speech department, was attended by a capacity crowd at the assembly.

The role of Socrates was portrayed by veteran Bob Wilson, who did an excellent job. Bob has appeared in many plays and has proved himself a fine actor in all of them. He is a member of Alpha Psi Omega, national honorary dramatic fraternity. Socrates' wife, Xantippe, was ably portrayed by Mrs. G. W. Fothergill. Dan Hochstein did a fine job with the role of Pausanias, King of Sparta.

Other members of the cast who turned in excellent performances were Elbert Blair, Lamprocles, Socrates' older son; Rodney Wartig, Lysis, Socrates' young son; Robert Johnson, Phoenix, Socrates' youngest son; Larry Gene Ramsey, Crito, older friend of Socrates; Reuben D. Burns, Critobolus, Crito's son; Roger Lee Wayman, Thaedo, another older friend.

Geraldine Cooley, Theodote, a woman of Athens; Bill Franklin, Anytos, an enemy of Socrates; James Warner, Meletos, another enemy; Walt Hopkins, Lycon, an enemy of Socrates; Earl Gebhardt, Crassos, Lycon's son and student of Socrates; Charles Hagee, Critias, present dictator of Athens, former student of Socrates; Miles Stucker, Satyros, slave and executioner; James Laughlin, 1st Thug; Kenneth Simmons, 2nd Thug; and Burl Walter, Magistrate.

Notes About the Faculty . . .

President J. W. Jones is holding regular dinner meetings with presidents of all organizations to discuss campus problems. Two such meetings have already been held and plans are underway for further meetings. Presidents of all campus organizations should watch the bulletin board for notices of these meetings and should plan to attend.

Dr. John L. Harr, head of the social science department, recently reviewed two books for national periodical magazines. One was "Law Writers and the Courts" by Clyde E. Jacobs for the Law Journal of Notre Dame University.

The other review was for the National Social Science magazine. The title of the book was "Making of American History" edited by Sheehan, in two volumes.

Miss Violette Hunter, of the English faculty, was in Columbia Saturday, attending a joint meeting of the division of higher education of the Missouri State Teachers Association and the Missouri Association of Teachers of English.

Dr. John L. Harr, head of the social science department, recently gave a talk at Shenandoah, Iowa, to the American Association of University Women, entitled "Road Block to World Peace."

Several college graduates of Northwest Missouri State College, who are members of the AAUW in that area, were present at the meeting.

High School Seniors To See College Life

Plans are underway for the annual Senior Day to be held on Monday, April 25. Seniors from high schools in northwest Missouri and neighboring Iowa will visit the campus on that day.

Seniors will be divided into groups and will tour the campus, guided by College students. The guests will attend conferences with the heads of the departments in which they are interested.

Various organizations have been asked to present skits for an assembly to be held in the College auditorium.

Campus Extra

A weekly radio broadcast called "Phases of the American Economy" can be heard over KNIM every Sunday at 12:45. Previous topics of discussion have been general business, agriculture, and stock markets. Future broadcasts will take up specific industries.

Members of the College forensic squad who have won honors in interpretation contests this year presented a poetry reading program before the Horace Mann Dramatics Club on Wednesday, March 23. The men participating were Larry Ramsey, John Lee Thompson, and Bob Wilson.

Track season is well underway. With five home meets this year, the students will have a fine chance to see some good track meets.

The weather has greatly hindered the spikesters in getting in top condition, but it should not be too long before they are ready to go at full blast.

The "M" Club's recent initiation was fun for everyone. The new letter winners will always remember it. There are now forty-one members in the club which is probably an all-time high.

An agreement with the Country Club has been drawn up concerning College golfers. People from the college can play every day but Sundays and holidays. If you are a golfer, see Dr. H. D. Peterson and get your card for permission to play.

If you have never seen a track meet, go to the meets out here. You might surprise yourself and enjoy it. Starting time, 2:30.
